STAFF ASSISTANT

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: Under general supervision of a higher level employee, an incumbent of this position performs complex clerical support work and administrative functions. The work performed is higher level in nature and requires good knowledge of the policies, functions and procedures of a department. The work involves responsibility for updating, maintaining and organizing records and reports. Ability to interact with employees and retirees, job applicants, general public, benefit administrators, and other governmental personnel is an essential job function. Exercise of independent judgment is a major aspect of the work. This class differs from the entry level by the degree of difficulty of work assignments and the level of responsibility in the incumbent's role with their assigned staff. A high degree of initiative and independent action is required to ensure the timely and accurate processing of the workflow. Supervision is not a responsibility of this position.
